

Do You Have Questions? We Have Information!

Elder abuse can be: physical, emotional, verbal, financial, sexual or neglect

Elder abuse can happen in the home, in the community and in Seniors' Care Homes.

Abusers can be relatives, care givers, friends or strangers.

→ Where To Get Help! ←

- In an emergency, call 911
- Your Seniors' Home Administrator
- Adult Protection (Your Health Authority) 1-855-376-4957
- Your local RNC or RCMP Detachment:
RNC (Available 24 hours a day) 1-709-729-8000
RCMP NL (Available 24 hours a day) 1-800-709-7267
- Your Family Doctor
- Mental Health Crisis Line, call 811
- Seniors NL (8:30am-4:30pm, Mon-Fri) 1-800-563-5599

Call 211 or visit nl.211.ca (Available 24 hours a day to provide you with information and referrals that connect you to critical human, social, community and government support)

These services are free and confidential

Keep Asking Questions Until You
Get The Answers or Help You Need!

